Profile

The focus of Mr. Wynn's practice is business transactions and estate and business planning for individual and corporate clients.

As part of his corporate practice, Mr. Wynn advises clients regarding merger and acquisition agreements, sale contracts, employment agreements, covenants not to compete, nondisclosure covenants, loan agreements, security agreements, leases, securities registration statements, private placement memorandums, stock-option plans, shareholder agreements, and deferred-compensation plans, including employee stock-ownership plans, 401(k) plans, and other retirement plans. Mr. Wynn also advises clients regarding the formation and operation of limited liability companies, partnerships, joint ventures, corporations, charitable trusts, foundations, and other business and nonprofit organizations.

As part of his estate and business planning practice, Mr. Wynn structures tax-advantaged transfers of business interests to younger generation family members. A substantial portion of Mr. Wynn's practice involves the preparation of trusts, wills, and other documentation necessary to implement selected estate plans. Mr. Wynn also advises personal representatives, trustees, and other fiduciaries concerning the administration of estates and trusts, including matters related to federal and state estate tax liabilities.

Mr. Wynn has been selected by his peers for inclusion in the The Best Lawyers in America since 1999. He is listed in the areas of corporate and tax law. Superlawyers.com named him an Alabama Super Lawyer for 2010, 2011, and 2012.
